Famiglia

Hi, we are your hosts Silvia and Luca, and we have lived in Burano all our lives. We bought this little pink house in June 2023 and we have transformed it into a special place to stay, relax and live the true quiet and peaceful life that we have the privilege of living and letting our children live. Because we think that even if only for a few days, everyone deserves to have this experience once in their life, to live a particular place like Burano from dawn to dusk.

Our Guesthouse Flora Cottage opened on 10.09.2023

We are very proud of it, we hope you like it.

It was entirely hand painted, inside and out.

This house is very old, it has existed for at least 200 years, and to respect the history of the house we did not want to revolution it but to enhance its uniqueness. With a meticulous relooking project we have created floral decorations, all special and beautiful. With each brushstroke, leaves, berries and flowering branches blossomed, bringing real happiness.

WE WISH YOU A PLEASANT STAY AND WE ARE AT YOUR DISPOSAL FOR ANYTHING :-) ARRIVEDERCI!

The special things in BURANO

WITH ALL ITS HOUSES PAINTED IN BRIGHT COLOURS, THE STREETS OF BURANO LOOK LIKE A BIG RAINBOW, AND CERTAINLY MAKE THIS ISLAND IN THE VENICE LAGOON THE MOST COLORFUL PLACE IN THE WORLD.

INHABITED SINCE ROMAN TIMES, THIS ISLAND BECAME VERY FAMOUS IN 1500, THANKS TO THE PRECIOUS ART CREATED BY THE HUMBLE HANDS OF THE WOMEN OF THIS ISLAND, MOTHERS AND WIVES OF FISHERMEN, WHO AWAITED THEIR RETURN BY MEETING IN THE SMALL FIELDS TO WORK LACE. AS A PASTIME, GIVING LIFE TO WONDERFUL NEEDLE AND THREAD CREATIONS. IT WAS PRECISELY THIS HUMBLE AND AT THE SAME TIME NOBLE ART THAT SAVED BURANO IN THE FREEZING WINTER OF 1872, WHEN THE LAGOON FROZE, AND THE FISHERMEN HAD NOTHING TO BRING HOME TO FEED THEIR FAMILIES. BUT THAT MOMENT OF NEED WAS ALSO THE SPARK THAT IGNITED THE FUTURE OF BURANO FOREVER. QUEEN MARGHERITA HERSELF, TOGETHER WITH COUNTESS ANDRIANA MARCELLO, AND THE YOUNG MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT PAULO FAMBRI, HELPED THE WOMEN OF BURANO IN THE GLORIOUS TASK OF GIVING THE RIGHT POMP TO BURANO LACE. THE BURANO LACE SCHOOL OPENED ITS DOORS THAT SAME YEAR, AND IN ITS MOMENTS OF SPLENDOR GAVE WORK TO AS MANY AS 1800 LACE MAKERS. BURANO LACE WAS SOLD IN VENICE, ROME, MILAN, FLORENCE, LONDON AND NEW YORK.

BURANO IS STILL KNOWN TODAY FOR THE EXQUISITE QUALITY OF ITS LACE, ALSO KNOWN AS 'PUNTO BURANO'.

THE ISLAND IS ALSO FAMOUS FOR BEING THE BIRTHPLACE OF BALDASSARE GALUPPI, A MUSICIAN COUNTED AMONG THE BEST OF THE 18TH CENTURY. HIS MONUMENT IS LOCATED RIGHT IN THE CENTER OF PIAZZA GALUPPI, THE MAIN STREET OF THE ISLAND.

BURANO STILL HAS SO MANY HIDDEN PEARLS TO FIND: THE HOUSE OF THE SCULPTOR REMIGIO BARBARO FOR EXAMPLE, OR THE COLORFUL RAINBOW HOUSE, UNOBTAINABLE IN THE LABYRINTH OF COLORFUL STREETS AND ALLEYS.

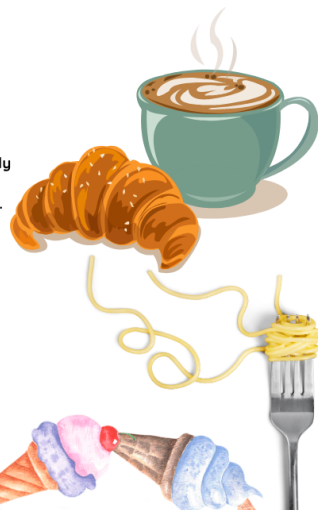

RESTAURANTS in Burano

BREAKFAST

You can eat at home in your pijama, please enjoy our selection of coffee and tea!

But if you like having breakfast out we suggest:

- Take away: BAKERY CARMELINA PALMISANO, very close to Flora Cottage, on main street, for fresh bread or croissants to take home!
- At a cafeteria: NINFEA on main street, a warm bar where to sit outside or in the lovely pink room upstairs
- Or BAR LAGUNA or BAR ALL'OMBRA for excellent cappuccino and cake among locals.

LUNCH

So much choice for lunch in Burano, from fish to pasta to pizza here are our favourites:

- AL RASPO DE UA: friendly, on a budget, touristic but good
- RESTAURANT AI PESCATORI: in front of Raspo de Ua, we love their Spaghetti allo Scoglio (with seafood)
- TRATTORIA DA ROMANO: Silvia's favorite, it's a temple of amazing food and art. Pricey but we only live once
- AL GATTO NERO: soooo famous for its risotto, we love it, but forget it without reservation so run and make one asap
- VENISSA: Michelin restaurant + winery, worth a visit even just to walk by the vineyard
- MADDALENA: very good and never crowded. In Mazzorbo
- DA FORNER: in Terranova district. Lovely and unknown
- DA PRIMO: we love their fish antipasto
- GALUPPI: for good pasta or good prawn risotto
- NINA 911: the best prosciutto crudo ever
- CAMPIELLO DEL PRINCIPE or LEON CORONATO: have you said pizzaaaaa?
- AE BANDIERE: in front of Flora Cottage / other side

DINNER

For dinner in Burano we always suggest to plan in advance because restaurants stay open ONLY if they get a certain number of reservations for dinner so please book the evening meal morning for evening:

Most likely these places will be open but book it!

- RESTAURANT GALUPPI, talk to the lovely owner Wanlapar and book a table almost every night
- NINFEA, if open they make lovely burgers
- DA ROMANO on weekends
- GATTO NERO on weekends
- NINA 911 on weekends
- PIZZERIA CAMPIELLO DEL PRINCIPE on weekends
- and more other options if you are on a lucky day!

IF NOTHING IS OPEN DO NOT DESPAIR! AT FLORA COTTAGE THERE IS ALWAYS SOME PASTA AND TOMATO TO MAKE AT HOME

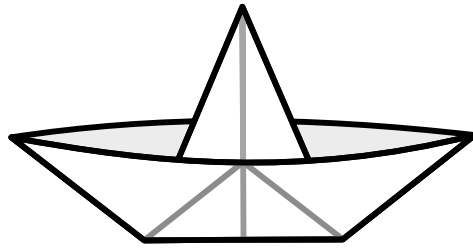

FOR SPRITZ AND TAPAS GO AT SUNSET AT IN PESCARIA VECIA AND FALL IN LOVE WITH THE VIEW OVER THE LAGOON! WE ALSO ADORE BAR ALL'OMBRA FOR THEIR GARDEN

DON'T FORGET TO TRY OUR LOCAL COOKIES CALLED BUSSOLAI AND SOME WATER AND MINT (Silvia's favorite drink - with still water and ice, no sparkling)

Burano Lace

The making of Burano lace spread to the Republic of Venice around 1500. Legend has it that a young Venetian sailor brought a very special seaweed from distant seas to his beloved and that she, wanting to preserve the dear memory forever, copied its delicate contours using simple thread. As the years passed, Burano lace became increasingly wanted and requested throughout Europe, so much so that thanks to Caterina de Medici and Minister Colbert, some Burano lace makers moved to France to work the "Punto in aria" (stitch typical of Burano lace). In 1665 the "Punto in aria" became "Point de France" thus starting strong competition with Burano lace. Despite this, the French point was never able to match the Venetian one. The Venetians had made lace an art, the French an industry. In 1797, with the end of the Venetian republic, the production of lace also ended, which became an exclusively family activity. The winter of 1872 was very cold, and for the economy of Burano, based exclusively on fishing, it represented a real tragedy. It was then that, thanks to the interest of Countess Andriana Marcello and the Honorable Paolo Fambri, the art of needle lace was reborn. The "Punto in Aria" and the "Punto rosa" came back into fashion and the Burano Lace School was established, so much so that in the 19th century needle lace became the main resource for the island of Burano. The school's production continued to grow until 1915, the year in which the First World War broke out, which marked a slowdown in the demand for Burano lace, which was followed by a recovery favored by requests from abroad. During the Second World War and in the following years the School went through good periods contrasted with less prosperous ones, until it was finally closed in 1972.

The ladies who today know the art of "needle lace" are very few and they work in their own homes. This makes this art even more precious and its artefacts are to be considered true works of art.

Murano Glass & Architecture

As the daughter of a retired glass master, I invite you on a heartfelt journey into the soul of Murano Island, where the timeless craft of glassmaking—shaped by centuries of tradition—still thrives. Having learned from the Maestri themselves, I'll share with you their secrets and stories. After plenty of time for questions and exploration, we'll wander through the island's unique architecture and hidden corners: the ancient cathedral, the former Conterie district, and the Church of San Pietro Martire, which holds both artistic treasures and some intriguingly mysterious secrets.

Sono la figlia di un maestro vetraio in pensione, e ti guiderò in un viaggio nel cuore dell'isola di Murano, dove l'antica arte della lavorazione del vetro, tramandata da secoli, continua a vivere. Dopo aver ammirato i maestri al lavoro, condividerò con te i segreti e le storie che rendono unica questa tradizione. Successivamente, esploreremo insieme l'architettura affascinante dell'isola e i suoi angoli nascosti: la cattedrale antica, il quartiere delle Conterie e la Chiesa di San Pietro Martire, che custodisce non solo tesori artistici, ma anche alcuni segreti misteriosi e affascinanti.

SMALL GROUP TOUR 4

Treasures of Torcello

Torcello is the oldest island, founded in the 5th century by populations fleeing the barbarian invasions. Today, with just 8 residents, it may seem forgotten, but once it was a thriving metropolis. On this walk we will discover the Devil's Bridge, the Baptistery, the Church of Santa Fosca, and the Cathedral of Santa Maria Assunta, where we'll admire the stunning mosaics of the Last Judgment, just like Dante himself once did. It's a tour I wholeheartedly recommend! Torcello is a MAGICAL place, known to few but unforgettable to those who visit. Torcello is the reason I became an art historian.

Torcello è l'isola più antica della laguna veneta, fondata nel VII secolo da popolazioni in fuga dalle invasioni barbariche. Oggi, con solo 8 abitanti, può sembrare dimenticata, ma un tempo era una metropoli fiorente, abitata da 25.000 persone. In questo tour, scopriremo il Ponte del Diavolo, il Battistero, la Chiesa di Santa Fosca, la maestosa Cattedrale di Santa Maria Assunta, dove ammireremo i magnifici mosaici del Giudizio Universale, proprio come Dante li osservò prima di scrivere la Divina Commedia.

È un tour che consiglio con tutto il cuore! Torcello è un luogo MAGICO, conosciuto da pochi, ma indimenticabile per chi lo visita.

Rowing in the Northern Lagoon

Imagine the colorful beauty of Burano island and her reflections on the green water of the lagoon. With this tour we will first explore Burano on foot with Silvia and then we will discover the magnificent lagoon in the best possible way: by rowing boat. Slowly rocked by the small waves of the laguna, on a traditional and ecological “Sandolo” boat rowed by 2 local women and Regatta champions, we will go where other boats don’t go, listening and looking to the lagoon the way only locals do. And on the way back, if you want, you can row too. An amazing tour.

Immagina la colorata bellezza dell’isola di Burano mentre si riflette sulle verdi acque della sua laguna. Con questo affascinante tour scopriremo Burano prima dalla terra, a piedi, camminando lungo le sue calli e campielli con Silvia, guida turistica nata e cresciuta qui, e poi esploreremo Burano invece dall’acqua, portati a remi da due campionesse di voga locali, che sul loro “sandolo” ci porteranno dove le altre barche non vanno, e nei luoghi più incontaminati della laguna dove volendo, proveremo anche a vogare. Un tour meraviglioso che parla di lentezza e natura, e tradizioni secolari.
